S.B. Civil Writ Petition NO.4831/2004

Tej Singh Jhala Vs. MDS University & Anr.

Date of Order : 10-12-2004

HON'BLE MR. PRAKASH TATIA,J.

Mr. T.S. Champawat, for the petitioner.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner failed in Ist year course of LL.B. Examination but upon revaluation, he was given opportunity to give examination of supplementary. According to petitioner, the supplementary examinations were not held in time, therefore, petitioner was permitted to take examination alongwith the main examination of IInd year course.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner was permitted to take examination as ex-student and not as regular student. The petitioner's supplementary results were declared in which petitioner was declared failed in one subject. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner since was permitted to appear in the examination as ex-student, therefore, he was entitled to apply for revaluation of his marks in the subject in which he failed in the course of Ist year LL.B. As per the rules, the students who are appearing in the supplementary examination cannot have any opportunity to revaluation of his marks.

In view of the above, I do not find any merit in the writ petition as the petitioner who took the benefit of revaluation when he was entitled and now he is not entitled for revaluation of his marks and the petitioner cannot get chance simply because exams were conducted late.

Therefore, the writ petition is dismissed.
